LITTLE CHILD DEAD.

Little Mary Alline Hooser, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hooser, departed this life July 15, 1905, aged two months and eleven days. A precious plant entwined itself about all with whom it came in contact; budded here, but blooms in a brighter, better world.

Mamma's precious darling,
Among the angels rests;
Removed from earthly sorrow,
Yonder joys she tests.
Alas, mortals are frail,
Life is a brittle thread;
Little Mary Alline
Is in Heaven—not dead.
Near the Savior's bosom,
Encircled in his arms,
Happy children linger—
O, so safe from harm.
Over in this homeland
Soon we will meet her there,
Eternal bliss and glory,
Rest, peace, and joy to share.

E. B. GRAHAM.
